Adjectives and Prepositions

Introduction

This adjectives and prepositions worksheet helps students practice everyday adjective-preposition collocations.

Procedure

Give each student a copy of the worksheet.

Tell the students to match the sentence halves together to make sentences containing adjective-preposition collocations.

Exercise A - Answer key

1. g. interested in
2. h. absent from
3. l. bored with
4. j. angry with
5. b. proud of
6. i. keen on
7. k. famous for
8. d. worried about
9. e. excited about
10. f. scared of
11. a. good at
12. c. jealous of

Review the meaning of each adjective-preposition collocation and then divide the students into pairs.

The students then describe the pictures on their worksheet using the adjective-preposition collocations from the first exercise.

Afterwards, get feedback on their descriptions.

Next, students complete questions with the correct prepositions.

Exercise C - Answer key

1. What are you interested in?
2. Do you get excited about going on holiday?
3. What is your country famous for?
4. What school subjects were you keen on as a child?
5. What do you get angry with people about?
6. How often are you absent from class?
7. Do you get jealous of people?
8. What are you scared of?

The students then ask and answer the questions with their partner.

Finally, get feedback from the class on their answers to the questions. Any interesting findings can be discussed in more detail.
