Introduction

In this adverbial clauses game, students make sentences containing adverbial clauses with specific subordinating conjunctions and verbs.

Procedure

Divide the students into groups of three or four.

Give each group a set of subordinating conjunction cards and a set of verb cards.

Ask the students to shuffle each set of cards separately and spread them out face-down on the table in two sets.

Students take turns turning over a subordinating conjunction card and a verb card.

The student then makes a sentence containing an adverbial clause using the conjunction and verb.

For example, if the subordinating conjunction was 'after' and the verb was 'eat', the student might say 'After Tom ate lunch, he went to the gym.'

Students can make any sentence they like as long as it is grammatically correct and contains an adverbial clause that uses the subordinating conjunction and verb.

If the other students in the group agree that the sentence is correct, the student keeps the two cards.

If not, the cards are turned back over, keeping them in the same place.

Students continue taking turns to turn over two cards and make a sentence until all the cards have been used.

Students should try to remember where cards are positioned to help them make sentences as they go through the game.

The student with the most cards at the end of the game wins.
