

Activity Type

Interactive reading, writing, listening and speaking exercises

Language Focus

Asking for and giving personal information

Aim

To learn and practice ways to ask for and give personal information.

Preparation

Send each student a copy of the interactive worksheet.

Level

Pre-intermediate (A2)

Time

30 minutes

Introduction

This theme-based personal information interactive worksheet helps students learn and practice ways to ask for and give personal information.

Procedure

Students begin by matching personal information questions with suitable answers.

Exercise A - Answer key

1. b, 2. d, 3. f, 4. a, 5. c, 6. h, 7. e, 8. g

Then, students use words from a box to complete a gap-fill exercise about a conversation at a doctor's surgery where a receptionist is asking a patient for personal information.

Exercise B - Answer key

1. Good afternoon	6. live
2. details	7. Do you have
3. full name	8. driving license
4. date of birth	9. phone number
5. Where	10. What

After that, put pairs into breakout rooms and have the students role-play the conversation with their partner. Then, the students practice the conversation again using their own personal information.

Next, students answer comprehension questions about the conversation at the doctor's surgery.

Exercise C - Answer key

1. The patient wants to see the doctor.
2. The reception asks for the patient's full name and date of birth.
3. The patient's middle name is Pablo.
4. The patient was born in 1986.
5. The patient's post code is 28012.
6. What is your job?
7. The patient works at the school across the street.
8. The patient should wait for his name to be called.

In the last exercise, students write one question to ask about each piece of personal information listed, e.g. 'What is your name?' 'How old are you?', etc. When the students have finished, review their questions together as a class. Then, have the students ask and answer the questions with a partner.