

A. Sort the three mixed-up clothes shop dialogues into conversation one, two and three.

Customer

- 1   Could you tell me how much these jeans are?
- 2   I'm looking for something to go with this shirt.
- 3   I bought this skirt last week, but it's too small.

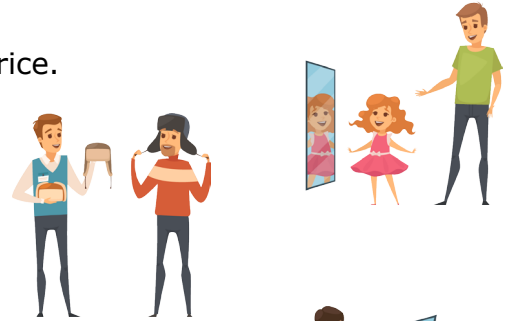

Shop Assistant

- I'm afraid that's the only size we have at the moment.
- Yes, they are $19.99.
- Well, we have some new jeans just in. They are half price.

Customer

- They look good. Do you accept credit cards here?
- Could you order a larger size for me?
- They're nice. Do you have them in dark blue?

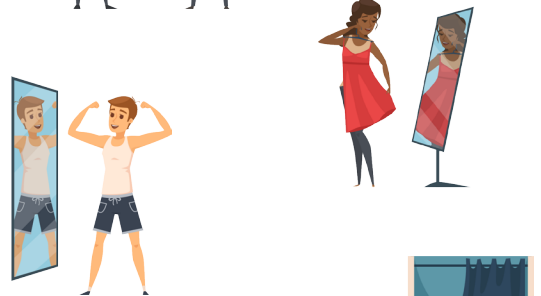

Shop Assistant

- Yes, but it would take two weeks to arrive.
- I'm afraid not, but we have them in light blue.
- Yes, we do.

Customer

- OK, I'll take them then.
- That's too long. I need it for a party on Friday.
- Great! Could I try them on?

Shop Assistant

- I'm sorry. Would you like to exchange it for something else?
- Of course. The changing rooms are over there.
- I'll just put them in a bag for you.

B. Now, read the three shopping conversations with a partner.

C. In pairs, create your own clothes shop dialogue between a shop assistant and a customer.
