Introduction

In this 'Find Someone Who...' time prepositions activity, students ask and answer yes/no questions that contain prepositions of time.

Procedure

Give each student a copy of the worksheet.

Go through the items on the worksheet and elicit the yes/no questions the students need to ask in order to do the activity, e.g. 'Do you usually wake up early in the morning?'

Demonstrate the activity by writing the first item on the board and adding a 'Name' and 'More information' column beside it.

Ask a student in the class 'Do you usually wake up early in the morning?'

If the student answers 'No, I don't', repeat the question with other students until one of them says yes.

Write this student's name in the 'Name' column on the board and ask a follow-up question to gain more information, e.g. 'What time do you wake up?'

Put the student's answer in the 'More information' column.

Once the students understand the idea, let them begin the activity.

Students then go around the class, asking each other the questions.

When a student finds someone who answers 'yes' to a question, the student writes down their name and asks a follow-up question to gain more information, noting down the answer in the last column.

Tell the students that they can only have the same name once (or twice). This is to encourage them to speak to as many different partners as possible.

When everyone has finished, ask students to give feedback to the rest of the class on what they found out. If there are any interesting findings, encourage the students to discuss them in more detail.
