Introduction

In this subway travel activity, students practice asking for and giving directions using a subway system map to help them learn language for getting around on a train or subway.

Procedure

Divide the students into pairs (Student A and B).

Give each student a corresponding worksheet.

Tell the students not to show their worksheet to their partner.

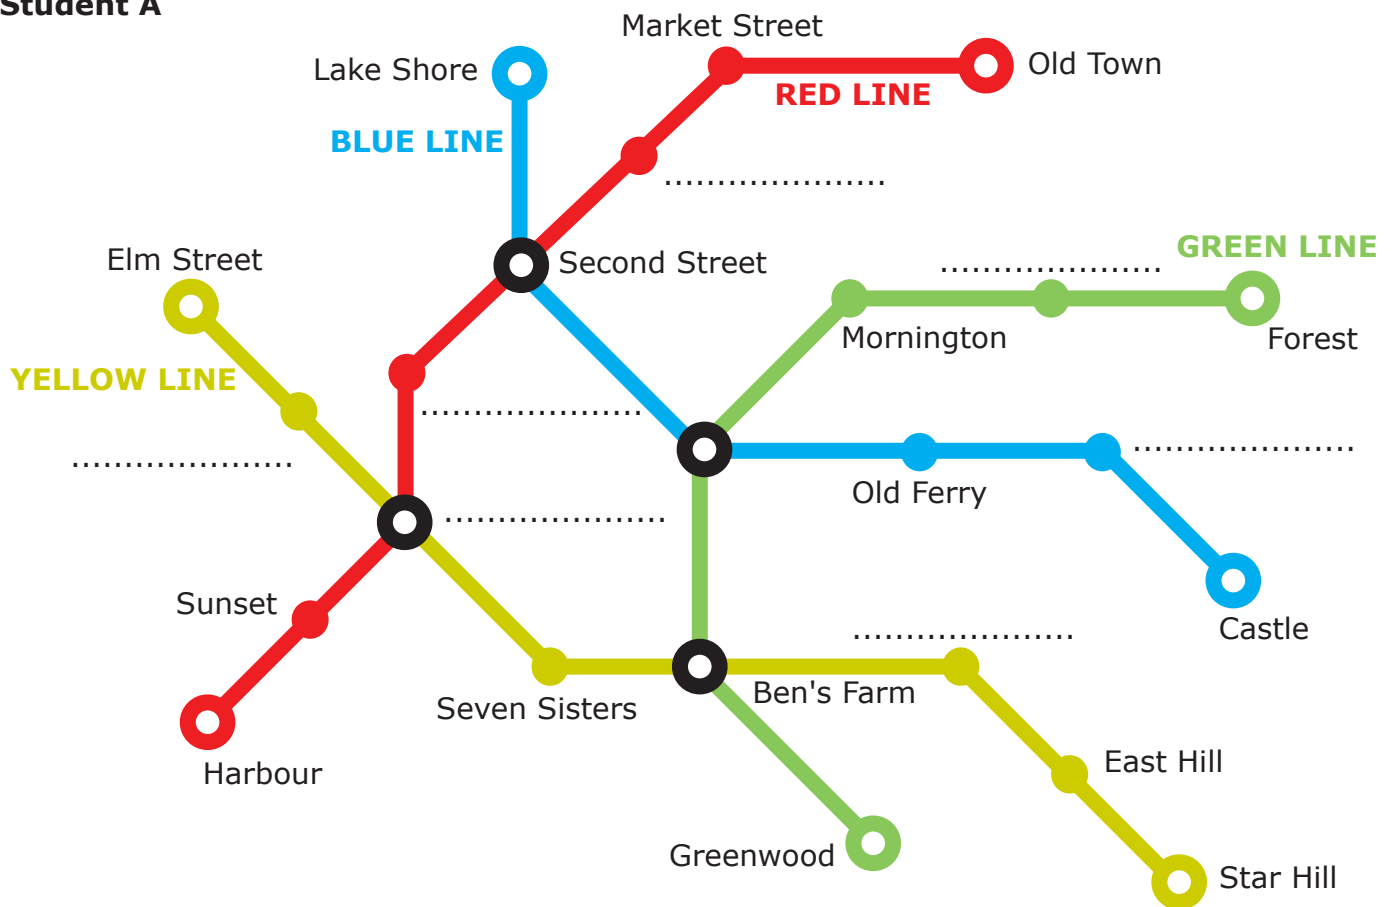

Go through the meanings of the phrasal verbs used to give directions in the activity with the class, i.e. get on, get off, change to, going to and ride for.

Students then take turns asking for and giving directions from one subway station to another using a subway system map and language from a box.

Students listen to their partner's directions, follow them, and write the destination station name on their map.

Afterwards, students check their answers by comparing maps with their partner.

Student A

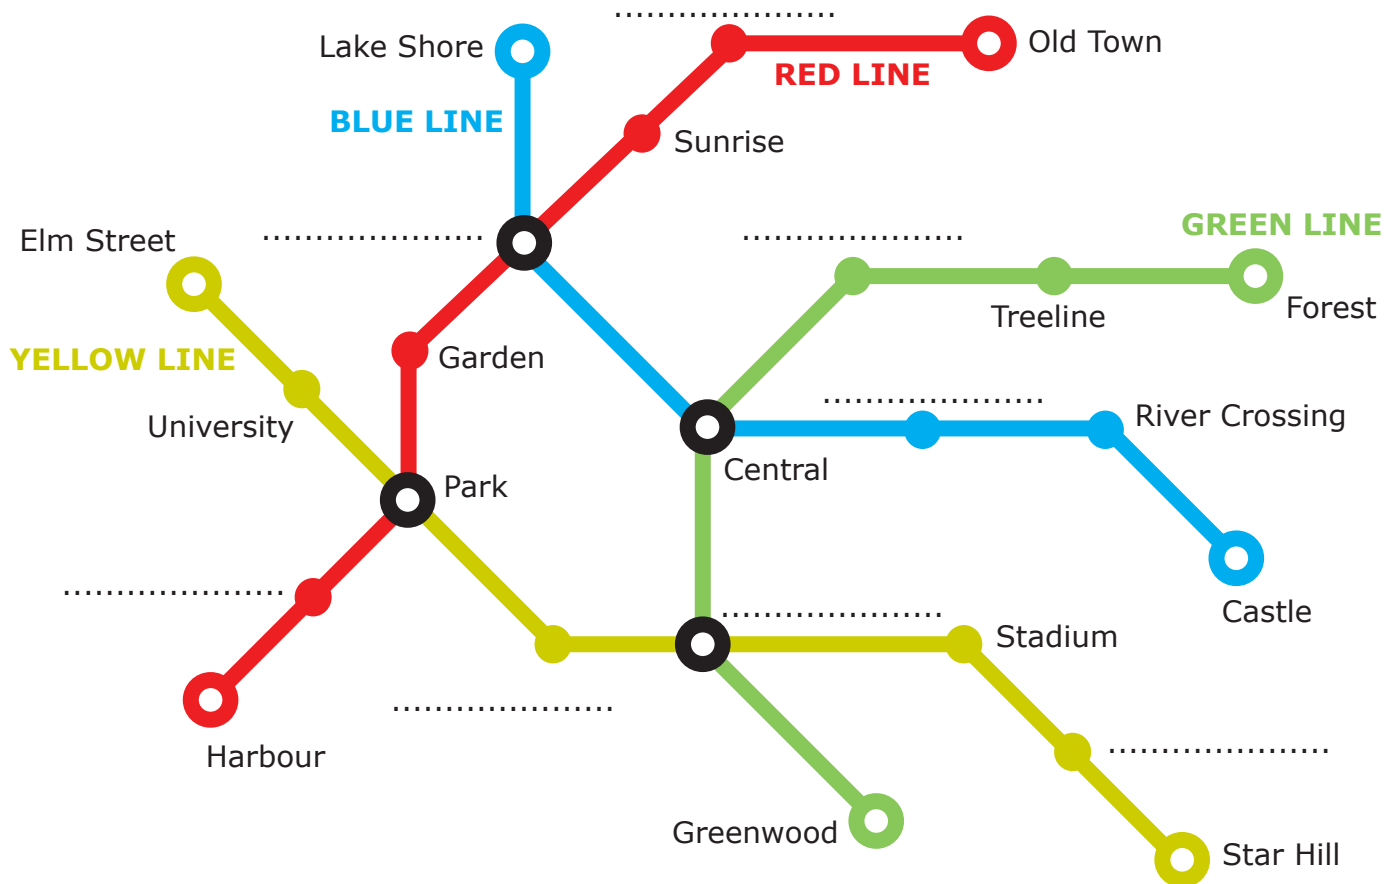

Take turns asking your partner how to get to each subway station below using the language from the box. Listen to your partner's directions and write each station name on the map.

A: I'm at*Sunset*..... How do I get to*Stadium*.....?

B: Get on the*Red*..... Line going to*Old Town*.....
Change to the*Yellow*..... Line going to*Star Hill*..... at*Park*.....
Ride for*three*..... stop(s). Get off at*Stadium*.....
