Introduction
In this interactive making offers breakout room activity, students guess missing words in sentences and questions that make offers with 'will' and 'shall'.

Procedure
Divide the students into pairs (A and B) and put them in breakout rooms.

Send each student a corresponding A or B worksheet.

Explain that the sentences with gaps are where they have to guess the missing words and the sentences without gaps are the ones their partner has to guess.

Explain that the missing words contain 'will' as a contraction ('ll) or 'shall' plus a verb (or two).

The missing words their partner has to guess are in bold on their worksheet.

Give the students a few minutes to read their sentences.

Student A starts by guessing the missing words in the first sentence.

Student B replies with 'Yes, that's right' or 'Sorry, try again' as appropriate.

When a student has guessed the missing words, they write them on their worksheet.

Student B then guesses the missing words in the second sentence and so on.

Students should say the whole sentence each time they guess, not just the missing words.
