

Write verbs in the sentences below to make phrasal verbs with 'up' and complete the crossword with the missing verbs.

Across

1. There's a new yoga course starting next week, you should up for it.
2. I have missed a lot of classes. I really need to up. Can I borrow your textbook?
5. I've tried to do this ten times, I up!
6. This meeting has gone on for too long. Let's it up.
7. There's a long queue for the new iPhone. You'd better up now.
8. That's an important issue. You should it up at the next meeting.
11. Since you love computers, you should up programming as a hobby.
13. Technology is changing so fast. I just can't up.
14. I shouldn't have eaten all that pizza. I feel sick. I think I might up.

Down

1. You're late for work. If you up for work late again, you're fired.
3. Look at the mess you made. it up now!
4. I usually up my presents on Christmas morning.
7. Stephen Hawking is so clever, I really up to him.
8. My girlfriend has decided to up with me.
9. You have a class in 15 minutes and you're still in bed. You really should up.
10. You love computer games and watching cartoons. Why don't you just up?
12. You are always causing problems, there's no need to up.