C. Now, read another version of the story that contains mistakes. Write past simple affirmative and negative sentences about the details that are incorrect. The first one has been done as an example.

A long time ago, a lion was asleep in the forest. A mouse wanted to play, so she walked up and down the lion. The lion woke up and put his huge nose on the mouse. 'Breakfast!' he thought. He opened his mouth to eat the mouse.

The mouse was very afraid, and she sang to the lion. She told the lion that maybe she could help him someday. The lion liked the idea that the mouse could help him in the future. He lifted his paw and ate the mouse.

A few weeks later, two farmers set a trap, and the lion accidentally stepped into it. The hunters came back and tied the lion to the tree with ropes while they went to find a car to carry the lion in.

After the hunters left, the mouse ran by and saw the lion. She remembered her promise to help him. So, she chewed through the ropes connecting the lion to the tree. Soon the lion was asleep again.

'See, I was right', said the mouse. The lion replied, 'Thank you!' After that, the lion and the mouse were hungry.
